

Strange, my soul, is it not? All men are negligent of their souls till grace gives them reason, then they leave their madness and act like rational beings, but not till then...

Eph 2:1-6 And you were dead (Sprituually) in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the way of the world, following the prince of the power of the air... like the rest of mankind.

... and when we were dead in our trespasses, God made us alive (Sprituually) together with Christ... and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus (Identification/"Baptism")...

Jn 12:25-26 Whoever loves his life loses it,
and whoever hates his life in this world
will keep it for eternal life.

If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me,
and where I am, there will My servant be also.
If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

Jn 12:32 *And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself.”

Jn 12:42-43 Nevertheless, even many of the authorities believed in Him, but for fear of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue, for they loved the glory that comes from man
more than the glory that comes from God.

The Tomb

Lu 23:55 The women who had come with him from Galilee followed [Mk 15:47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of (James and) Joseph] and saw the tomb and how his body was laid.

Lu 23:56 Then they returned (they returned home) and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath (1st Day of Unleavened Bread) they rested according to the commandment.

"But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep," 1 Corinthians 15:20

A person wearing a white robe stands in a vast field of golden wheat. Their arms are raised in a gesture of praise or triumph, reaching towards a bright sun on the horizon. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of sunrise or sunset, creating a peaceful and hopeful atmosphere. The entire image is framed with a dark, irregular border that looks like torn paper.
